TESTIMONIALS.
From Mr. JOHN J. MAHON, Capilla del Señor, June 29, 1881.—The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of during scab in sheep, I have seen many specifics used, and I consider Gillard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.
From Mr. JAMES M. THOMAS, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881.—Having given a good trial to Gilliard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.
From Mr. Wm. Petty, Estancia Caro, Colonia, Sept. 20, 1881.—
"I feel great pleasure in informing you that the sheep dip supplied by you to me under the name of Gillard's Sheep Dip has had surprising results on my English long-woolled rams; it has kept them entirely free from scab after only twice using it, although those rams have been constantly running in a flock of scabby sheep. I intend for the first time to give it a trial with the whole of my English breed of sheep as soon as I have them shorn, as I feel satisfied I shall with that did keep scab out of the flock."
From Messrs Patrick Mahon, junr., Ciriaco Morales, and James Murray, Capilla del Señor, Sept. 18, 1881—
"It gives us great pleasure to inform you that, after giving a good trial to Gillard's non-poisonous sheep dip, we can pronounce it to be the best specific we have used as yet, and we are fully determined for the future to use no other remedy."

LUXOR
KEROSENE OIL.
This celebrated brand of Kerosene, manufactured by the Chesebrough Manufacturing Company (the manufacturers of Vaseline) is without doubt the best in this Market. It is perfectly pure, gives a brilliant light, and is absolutely free from that disagreeable odour most kerosene has.
The U. S. Government requires that no Oil be sold under a fire-test of 115°; this is 150°, it is therefore perfectly safe.
As such it is recommended, and families wishing to burn a really good Oil, cannot do better than send for a sample to Miss Lilian Lovelight's Letter.

Dear Susy, your nice little note came to hand,
A breath of fresh air in a sun-stricken land;
How gay and delightful existence must be,
In your sweet rustic cottage that looks on the sea.

Among other questions you ask me, my dear,
(For everything NEW comes to air itself here)
Is all that I know, or have heard, or have seen,
Of the wonderful jelly they call VASELINE.

So I've studied it up, as the college boys say,
And send the result without further delay;
That queer and mysterious oil that is found,
A mile or two down in the rocks under ground.

Is the germ of that blessing to man, VASELINE;
I'm in LOVE with it, Susy, as doubtless you see;
As YOU (when I tell you its virtues) will be.

I fear, dearest Susy, you'll think it not true,
If I tell you the wonderful things it can do;
Like a veil of soft satin it renders the hair,

It conquers neuralgia, coughing and croup,
Sore throat and diptheria kills at a swoop;
While for cuts and eruptions there never was seen,
Or for burns, such a treasure as pure VASELINE

And now, Susy dear, it is time to go dress,
[I will send you some Vaseline up by express]
Then the hearts of the beaux you will certainly win,
You'll be Lovely without as you're Healthy within.

HAVAS' AGENCY
Paris, 19th
Committee have not yet reported to Chambers on Reform of Constitution project, but an adverse report is feared; as two thirds of the Committee are known to be opposed to the proposed reform.

THE PLAZA ONCE.

The Once has undergone such sweeping changes since the beginning of last year, that it seems problematical whether it will relapse into its former 'corral' looking condition. This all important question as to the future status of the plaza came under the consideration of the respective authorities in the matter; the Once would have been transformed into a beautiful park, with groves all along, but for the view which the Lord Mayor took of the prospects and necessities of the wool men. Strange to say, the men who raised such a cry of indignation when the Exhibition building began, now have come to the conclusion that, after all, there is nothing like wool stored in barracas and deposits, and nothing half so sweet as a garden with beautiful side-walks, fountains and bowers, for recreation after business hours.

Both the Once and the South Plaza are mere relics of barbarism, and in all civilized Europe there are not to be found two such plazas in the cities, unless for military manoeuvres. As a parade-ground the Once is too small; the esplanade must be in Palermo, but for a park the Once is most admirably adapted, for many reasons; but the prime reason of all to turn the Once into a garden is that all the neighbors are unanimous in their hopes that Lord Mayor Alvear will effect the change in the plaza as quickly as that in the pavement of the street.

The Once is, furthermore, the natural terminus of the Western Railway, and whoever has travelled on the Continent must have remarked the great emulation amongst the companies and the municipalities to surround the terminus with gardens, boulevards, avenues etc. This is the case all over Europe, and the tendency is immistakable; the Once is in these conditions, and at a terminus of the most important railway in the Republic, a park should be made. It is a mistake to think that we need a wool plaza in the Once, as has been proved by the expriences of this present season; the bullock carts come in nearly all by rail, and the wool goes to deposit, into the barracas, station, etc. Meantime the few bullock carts that did arrive certainly did not number fifty, according to what the artistas say. The province is evidently growing too much for the bullock cart to be visible in the city of Buenos Aires: the railways are there for the purpose, and even the sight of the carretas fastened to the trucks reflects on the province. As a wool plaza, all will agree, we think the Once is now very little needed, and as it is to be supposed that the embellishment of Buenos Aires, undertaken by the Municipal Board, will not remain a dead letter, the plaza must sooner or later become like that of the Parque or Retiro.

The Once, like the Parque, the 25 de Mayo and the Retiro, has a history of its own—that history is one of sheepskins. The old residents of Buenos Ayres well remember when the Once truly reflected the status of the province, we may say of the Republic. Every square inch of the plaza was occupied, and the guitar, the chiripa and the mate cup reigned supreme. The gauchos are gone, and in the natural progression of progress French and German 'artistas' have taken their place. Barracas have been erected on all sides, the bullock cart was gradually driven out, until the present state of affairs has transformed both the plazas and the ideas of the wool men.

Most of the wool men have large families, and, what with the dust, the mud, the bullock-cartmen, &c., it has been impossible to derive any of the natural advantages of the position. It changed into a garden the Balvanera parish will make same a fashionable rendezvouz of high life. If the Municipality would only attempt to try a flower market in the Once, we do not know what very beneficial effects the influence of horticulture may have on the transactions of the 'artistas' and barraqueros. All clamour for a park, and it is to be hoped that the withdrawal of the Exhibition will be a great turning point in the fortunes of the traditional old plaza.

OUR THEATRES.

The awful sacrifice of human life in the Ring Theatre of Vienna last month was evidently the starting point of a reform in theatrical architecture all over the globe. How badly this is required may be seen from the universal panic the catastrophe has caused, awakening the authorities of all the great cities of Europe to the necessity of a reform. It is somewhat curious to find that Paris—the Queen of Cities—where every arrangement for public amusement was supposed to be perfect, was the first to acknowledge her shortcomings in this respect, and, a few days after the Vienna calamity, the Prefect of the Seine summarily closed several theatres till alterations to ensure the safety of the public are carried out. In Berlin, where authority is authority in its most rigid sense, and where the precautions at places of public amusement were already most stringent, they have been made still more so. Nearly all the Municipalities of Europe have followed in the wake.

We are glad to see that our energetic Lord Mayor is determined not to be behind-hand and has taken 'our theatres' vigorously in hand. On Thursday, by his orders, Messrs. Buschiazzo and Aberg, the well known architects, made a minute inspection of four of the city theatres—the Variedades, Politeama, Goldoni and Opera House. The Colon will have a day to itself. The Lord Mayor was unable to accompany the architects, but their reports are so clear that he will not require ocular demonstration that every theatre in Buenos Aires is a trap in which thousands of lives might be sacrificed in five minutes by the careless throwing away of a match. Wood! Wood! Wood! Wood from top to bottom wherever there was a possibility of employing it. When one recalls the smoking that goes on in all parts of our theatres every night, the number of gas lights, and the absence of any special precautions, it seems really miraculous that we have not had the Vienna horror enacted here years ago. We have only space today to give the report on the Opera House which we select as the most important theatre of the city after Colon. We take it from the Nacion.

"Dante placed over the gates of hell, and we would place over the door of the Opera House—'Voi ch 'entrate lascia ogni speranza.'

"The 'empresarios' of the masquerade balls now going on there have indulged a perilous fancy in placing iron railings across the doors, as if to render exit specially difficult in case of a general panic. They should be ordered to take down these railings without a moment's delay. The entry to the pit should be widened to at least three times its present dimensions, which can be done by removing the boxes at each side.

"The staircases of the Opera House are of marble, but the banisters and supports of the railings are of wood. This can be remedied, but more is required; viz, more staircases, which can be made in spaces available at both sides of the theatre; if necessary, the cafe on the right side must be abolished. All the reforms required at the Variedades—new ceiling, water tank, pipes to deluge the proscenium, fire hose service in the galleries, special system of lights etc, are equally necessary in the Opera House, to ensure, not absolute safety, but merely indispensable precautions.

"The foyer of this theatre would allow part of the audience an easy exit by having the doors made to open outwards; at present they open inwards, and should they close in a panic, the result would be appalling. Still more is required. First the owner of the house on the left must be made to remove the spiked railing on his balcony, so that the people may be able to jump on to it easily from the roof. On the other side the proprietor must be made to knock down a wall he has built, to allow escape by his roof.

"On the roof to the left it might answer if the owner would make a door in his wall, opening inwards to his house; it could be kept closed, but in such a way that a kick would suffice to open it. As the theatre is now constructed, every soul on the left side of the gallery ('paraiso') will inevitably perish in case of a fire, if a means of escape, if only to the adjoining roofs, be not opened for them. The bare thought of what may occur if this precaution be not adopted in time, makes one tremble.

"In the Opera, more than in any other theatre, the safety of the public is a question of police rather than of architecture or engineering. In conclusion we may mention that one of the most distinguished architects in Buenos Aires, who is at present directing the erection of a new bank, never trusts himself in the Opera House unless he can secure the nearest pit stall to the door, either on the right or left.

BRUSH WITH THE INDIANS.

A telegram from General Villegas the commander-in-chief of the Nahuel Huapi expedition, announces a fight with the Indians at Fuerte 1° Division. This fortin is that of the Medanos situated at the Paso de Neuquen at the confluence of the rivers Limay and Neuquen with the Rio Negro. The Indians must have been in the triangle formed by the two affluents of Rio Negro; in order to attack the Fortin they must have crossed the Neuquen at the Paso, when they met Captain Gomez with 16 men of the 7th of line and 14 telegraph workmen. The Indians mustered 800 strong and attacked vigorously, since they left 19 killed; there remains little doubt that the heroic resistance of Captain Gomez would have been of little avail if the garrison stationed higher up on the Neuquen had not come to the rescue and driven the invaders across the river back into the Nahuel Huapi triangle. At all events, the brush shews that the troops were of the right stuff; if they had been surprised in the open field, they would have all been butchered. The President of the Republic has telegraphed to General Villegas, making Gomez a Sergeant Major; he deserves it.

The invasion shews that the Indians exist when they can attack in such numbers. General Villegas will have to drive back 12,000 Indians from the fastnesses of the Cordillera; no easy task when we take into consideration the conformation of the territory where operations must be made. Now, more than ever, does one see the necessity of joining Chile in a crusade against the savages. There never will be any security until the Cordillera is clear, and all the Indians are thrown over the Limay. The latter river is a good barrier, and three thousand troops stationed all along the banks of the Rio Negro and the Limay up to the Nahuel-Huapi would guarantee the security of the frontier. It will take a year before this plan can be effectually carried out, but it cannot be done without the help of Chile. Both countries are dependent of each other in this Indian Question, and it remains to be seen if both Governments can manage to arrive at a settlement of the matter.

LONDON LETTER

(From our Own Correspondent)

December 17th.

The European event of the day is the acquittal of M. Rochetort in the action for libel brought against him by M. Roustan, the diplomatic hero of the Tunisian campaign. The verdict, like most French verdicts, is supposed to represent more the feelings of the jury, and in this case their political feelings, than their opinions as to the merits of the legal case and weight of evidence produced. The heart of the libel was that M. Rochefort, in the 'Intransigeant,' accused M. Roustan, and indirectly M. Gambetta, of sacrificing the interests of France to stock-jobbing speculations. At the same time, as pointed out by the public prosecutor, M. Dauphin, M. Rochefort had admitted that these stock-jobbing scandals had been going on in Tunis since 1871, three years before the arrival of M. R. Roustan.

Still, if M. Roustan was not 'in it' at the beginning, that is no reason why he should not have joined in it at the end, and combined with other scandals, and M. Roustan's known intimacy with certain females and families in Tunis, the jury evidently thought it likely he might have gone in for the whole arrangement, financial, social and political; accordingly, as good 'bourgeois,' they gave the Government a wholesome lesson. The next question is, will M. Gambetta take the hint and following the newer and higher order of foreign policy instituted by the Radical Government in England, in the cases of Affghanistan and the Transvaal, withdraw out of the mess in Tunis? Many people seem to think he will, and, making allowances for the ever-present vulgarity of poor human nature, they almost hope that jingoism, in its most offensive and old-fashioned form, is about to follow Lord Beaconsfield, and will expire with M. Bartholomew St. Hilaire in France and the winning 'sweet-speeched' Mr. Blaine in America.

Sometime ago you will have seen in the London illustrated newspapers a portrait of M. Roustan. To my mind he presented the beau ideal of the handsome, energetic, unscrupulous type of a French diplomat. As 'attachés' I had seen many such. Alas! for portraits! The Times correspondent in Paris writing last night says—'To day for the first time I saw M. Roustan. It seemed interesting to me to know the man who was the great inspirer of the expedition originally applauded by nearly all the papers, though many now try to wash their hands out of it. The result has once more shown me that men seldom correspond to the idea formed of them by their public acts. He has nothing of the decided air which might have been supposed, nothing in his aspect to strike the attention of those who are not aware of his fame, and even when you know who he is you vainly search for indications of character, &c.'

The correspondent also mentions a most funny and thoroughly French incident, although it might have occurred in Buenos Aires, or in Hong-Kong, or Dublin; anywhere but in this morally unique country—England. He says that whilst speaking with Mr. Roustan the foreman of the jury was announced. 'He had come to express his sympathy with M. Roustan!

It is not thought that M. Roustan will return to Tunis.

In the Daily Telegraph of yesterday you will find a sensational account of one of those occurrences which may be said to represent London at the close of the nineteenth century. In all times there have been taps, taverns and oyster-rooms with their female attractions and baits, but the modern 'bar,' imported originally from the United States, and growing in London into a splendid exhibition of architectural and decorative art, is in all senses a novelty. For the loose young man, that is to say the youngster not necessarily worse than his fellows, but who is attracted neither by old family discipline nor by innocent if slow family amusements, nor by special studies, and who makes the Criterion, the Gaiety, or the Holborn his club and evening resort. The liquors are not the real attractions: they are only the excuse. The real and very natural attractions are long rows of fine girls, made finer by false hair and by false bottoms to the bars or flooring on which they stand, and thus commanding and overawing the mannikins they serve with 'fours' of whiskey or glasses of bitter.

Some of these youngsters—varying in age from 15 to 50—see the same girls night after night. They enter the heated atmosphere of these places literally blind. They see nothing but her. Now her is generally speaking a young woman of a class higher at least than barmaids are drawn from. Many of the Holborn, the 'Crit,' or the Gaiety girls are little better than varnished slavies. Some, however, are of a superior class and on the look-out for two things, to do their duty to their employers by making greenhorns spend their money as freely as possible, and to nail some fellow in a matrimonial spec. No ball-room hack in Mayfair is harder and more heartless than these girls, who have night after night to perform a monotonous task of chaff and business with a succession of idiotic young men. In the case mentioned in the Daily Telegraph you have a full exemplification of the morals of London.

Mrs. Langtry has made a most successful debut at the Haymarket Theatre as Mrs. Hardcastle in Goldsmith's 'She Stoops to Conquer.'

No tidings of the balloon. The light seen by the Aberdeen steamer has resolved itself into a fire-balloon sent up by a Dundee gentleman for amusement, and the big object in the Channel it is feared is a rotten whale after all.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We refer in another column to the theatres of this city, which the Lord Mayor has taken vigorously in hand. The report of the city architects, Messrs. Buschiazzo and Aberg is most alarming. They have not reported on the Colon Theatre yet, but all the others seem to be veritable decoys to destruction; not one of them is built as a theatre should be; they are all almost wholly of wood, and combustible wood too, with no precaution whatever against fire. So imminent is the danger, that the President of the Municipality should at once close every one of them for masquerade balls till the alterations suggested by the reporting architects are carried out. There is infinitely more danger of a fire being produced at one of these orgies, where the united effects of dancing and drinking render the audience disorderly, than at a theatrical performance where the attendance is composed of the respectable and orderly classes. Shut all the theatres at once, Mr Alvear, and let masqueraders be content with the Florida Gardens and the Skating Rink till the theatres are made safe. "All ye who enter here leave hope behind" is the inscription which Messrs. Buschiazzo and Aberg say should be put in large letters over the door of the Opera House.

The Nacion has telegrams from Pernambuco with the news from Europe by the Valparaiso, to December 30th. Cardinal Prince Hohenlohe left Berlin, on that day for Rome charged to deliver to the Pope from the Emperor William a confidential letter which is said to have been couched in the most friendly terms. Mr. Roustan has gone back to Tunis, where he is now both French Minister Resident and Minister of Foreign Affairs to that illustrious dead-beat the Bey. Yet His Majesty 'Leon le Gros' says he has not annexed Tunis.

The Humbert's passengers had a broiling sail to the Roads, but there was a nice breeze on the river. The mails were heavy.

There must have been more stewed crabs at Bahia Blanca yesterday. The heat was too utterly utter for even the fanatic aesthete to support with equanimity. The rains seems to have ceased, and camp men are beginning to look rather anxious, in spite of the rise in gold. A few days more of such roasting weather will turn every blade of grass in the country to tinder.

Another 'lechero' was dashed to bits by a train on the Western Railway, near Almagro, on Thursday night. Another milkman who was with him refused to ride along the line, the dreadful affair at Moron the other night having made him cautious. His prudence saved his life. The engine driver turned on the full force of his fog-horn, but it was too late.

Nothing can be done in the Plate without a squabble. The Montevidean Government wants 'per fas aut nefas' to give the Continental Exhibition Committee there an official character, but the members stoutly refuse the 'honour,' and they are right. The Government says it will name another Committee to-morrow, if the members of the existing one do not submit.

The 'Cuadros Plasticos' that were exhibited here some five years ago, re-open this evening. The historical characters to be seen in wax are so numerous that we can not give all their names, but may mention Marie Antoinette (while going to the scaffold), Thiers, McMahon, General Flores, Pierola, Grau, Lopez, Daza, Don Carlos, General Santa Maria etc. Also the Last Supper. The Battle of Miraflores, Destruction of Chorillos etc.

We understand that Don Hector Alvarez, the talented Under-Secretary of the Interior, has postponed his trip to the South till the next run down of the Villarino.

The first exhibits entered the Exhibition building on Thursday. They are from Paraguay. The concert hall will be finished on Monday week, the last day of the month.

The Times mentions a curious case of a man being killed at Lord Salisbury's mansion through accidentally touching a wire through which the electric fluid passes for lighting the house with Brush candles. The unfortunate fellow was brushed out of existence instantaneously. This is worse than the man at Barracas who swallowed a flash of lightning while speaking through a telephone during a thunderstorm, but sustained no more serious injury than that which invariably arises from being knocked head over heels.

General Sarmiento visited the Exhibition building on Thursday. The venerable statesman went over the whole place, but stopped longer in the San Juan department than any other, and made some valuable suggestions to those in charge, which were at once adopted. On the previous day President Roca paid a flying visit to the building at 7 p.m., just as the workmen were leaving the place. There was not a Committee man in the building at the moment, but a capataz did the honours very well, and the Chief Magistrate of the nation appeared much pleased and satisfied with what he saw,

The Archery Fete at Flores was re-opened on Thursday evening with great eclat. The attendance was large and most fashionable, and the ladies reaped a rich harvest in religion's cause. Amongst those present were Dean Monsignor Dillon, Provincial Deputy Murphy, Colonel Rodriguez, Dr Pellegrini and many other distinguished persons. One of the most pleasing features of the evening was Mr D'Abble's truly magnificent performance on the pianoforte, which produced the most enthusiastic applause, This gentleman has evidently the stuff of a Listz or Thalberg in him. We hope he will give the public the pleasure of hearing him again to-morrow night, when the Fete will be resumed (Wives and Weather permitting.)

Very friendly notes have been exchanged by Baron von Holleben, German Minister, and Dr Irigoyen, Minister of Foreign Affairs, on the occasion of the former leaving for Europe on vacation, to recruit his health. Mr Scholl, German Consul at Montevideo, will act as Chargé d'Affaires here during the Baron's absence. Baron von Holleben took formal leave of the President of the Republic on Thursday.

Our old acquaintances the Mole 'changador' and boatman are at it again—fleecing that unfortunate sheep, the Public. The Port Captain has checkmated them, however, by ordering a board to be put up at the head of all the landing stairs, with the fares for both boatmen and porters set forth thereon.

Another reminder that there are such beings as wild Indians in this part of the globe was received yesterday. Gen. Villegas wire, that 800 savages attacked Fort Medanos, above the confluence of the Nauquen and the Limay. There were only 16 soldiers and 20 telegraph peons, under the command of Captain Gomez, in the Fort, but they beat the Indians off bravely, killing 16 of them, whereupon the other 784 made off hot foot. Bravo Captain Gomez!

President Roca was slightly indisposed yesterday and could not come into town.

Another phase of the Judicial muddle turned up yesterday. It is found that the Cabildo is not large enough to accommodate all the National Judges, and some of the 'escribanos' are to be turned out, to make room for their superiors. After all the Cabildo is a very poor place for National Justice to dwell in. Something on the scale and in the style of the Four Courts in Dublin is what is required. There is a tremendous rise in the price of tables and easy chairs, as the Provincial men have taken all their official Penates with them, and new furniture has to be purchased for all the Juzgados de Paz and the Cabildo. The list of furniture allowed to each Juzgado is meagre enough, the only things in which liberality has been shown being spittoons, of which four are allowed to each office. In no country that we know of does Justice require so much aid from tobacco to get through its work as in this.

They had a broiling day in Montevideo yesterday, 32 Centigrade in the deepest shade. In spite of the heat, however, the brokers managed to drive Deuda Amortizable up to 20.

The Municipal engineers inspected the new theatre in Calle Florida yesterday and they say that an audience has less chance of being fried in its own fat there than in any of the other houses. It does not look particularly safe from the outside.

The police at Almagro are requested to look after some urchins who amuse themselves frequently with slings, sending stones and pieces of brick in all directions, to the great detriment of windows and other breakable things. As yet, fortunately, nobody has been killed.

A mad cow charged down Calle Estados Unidos yesterday, knocked down a woman, gored a policeman and frightened the life out of the whole 'barrio' till several policemen came up and made cold meat of the cow with their sabres and revolvers.

Number 11617 won the 10,000 pats prize in the San Luis Lottery on Thursday.

ON 'CHANGE.

Jan. 20th

Patacones	25.10
Cedulas A	101
National Bank Shares	130½

The heat, the mails, and the politics weighed upon the Bolsa ring this morning. There was nothing of yesterday's fizz in the gold market; the visions of a returning gold ring are at least for the moment dispelled, and, although there is always a certain quiet demand for gold in the market, which the Bolsa is called on to meet, still beyond this there is really nothing. Gold was offered on time today by well known speculators, men who were yesterday buyers. The operations to-day represented only one half of yesterday's, and the weakness in the market was felt from the beginning. The brokers view the rising premium of the patacon in a favorable light, as the speculation therein affords plenty of business. The business of the Bolsa is very limited now, compared to what it was last year, when the speculation in gold only supported one hundred brokers. A premium of 5 cents even allows of enough business in the market to support many who do not wish to enter into the National Bank Share speculation. There is a prevalent opinion on 'change that although the present premium on gold cannot be sustained we will see high prices in the winter months.

Cedulas were weak to-day, both Series A and E gave way. The latter scrip is selling for end of March at 83½, in anticipation of a rise in the gold market. Series A relapsed to 101, where they seem fixed for the present, until more buyers enter the market.

The business in National Bank Share was not important to-day. The position of the market is quite undecided, but he stock seems unwilling to give way before the bears. The weakness, nevertheless, is palpable and rates fell slightly. The speculation for end of February is now greater than that for the end of the month. Cash operations continue insignificant; some 200 shares sold to-day at 131½. The market closed at 132½. Very few shares are to be had cash; rates for end of February opened at 132½ rose to 133, and closed firm at 132½. For end of the month rates opened firm at 131½, and fell gradually to 131. There was little animation in the market, and the great heat paralyzed business in general.

The rates at the ring were—

The Bahia Blanca land auction was the talk of Change; all the brokers congratulate Dr Quantos on his splendid purchase; the question now is, will he stock the land. We hear from an estanciero that the opinion in the Sociedad Rural about the lands is that they cannot be wire fenced, owing to the 'tosca'.

Gas Shares very weak and offered at $1,900, the highest bid made $1,850; many lots offering in the market.

Buyers of Italian Bank Shares offering 50 premium; the dividend we hear will be 7½ o/o for ½ year. Very few shares offering in this market.

Flores property steadily rising; we hear of the sale of a building site on the Calle Real, near Unzue, at 7,000 m/c per vara front with 70 varas deep; all the houses in Flores this summer occupied.

The Provincial Bank question threatens to settle the Capital question, and the opinion on the Bolsa is that the Bank will have to move out to Belgrano or Flores; and leave only a sucursal in this city. Governor Rocha might have avoided all the present questions about double stamps, &c., by simply moving out with his Capital in time, but no one seems willing to leave the city and want to stay here; and small blame to them; the double stamp, however, admits of only one solution, and that is, for the Provincial Government to at once move out; each day the present state of things is getting hotter and new difficulties created. The opening of branches at Flores and Belgrano is a mere makeshift, and will not meet the difficulty.

Although some ten or twelve of the best brokers here have gone head and heels into Deuda Amortizable, Montevideo, prices have not advanced as many hoped for. Until the stock is sold on this Bolsa, there is not much chance of any permanent rise, and not for the first time the brokers here remain stuck with Montevidean stocks.

Mr Mera was welcomed on 'Change and enveloped in friends as he entered the hall. Mr Mera is the descendant of one of the oldest and the most distinguished families in Ireland, the O'Meara's; at the time of the Peninsular War many representatives of the family went over to Spain, where they got married.

We are glad to hear that Dr Llambi, the talented President of the Mortgage Bank, is much better.

Freights continue very firm and to k upwards, there is not so much produce offering now as in the beginning of the month, but all the steamers engage full cargoes.

The sailing of the Humber was the business of the day; her cargo we published the other day; she loads in Montevideo and in Rio.

At afternoon hours very much gold was brought to bear on the market; large amounts were sold at 25.10, but prices weakened and buyers refused to pay more than 25.05. In National Bank Shares very little was done, owing to the small number of sellers; prices, therefore, settled gradually and operations were effected for end of the month at 132 and for end of February at 133. The market is very firm.

The Provincial Bank discounted to-day—
170,000 pats gold
2,000,000 carre cy.

10,000 salted hides from the Concepcion de Uruguay were sold to-day at 48½; weight 65 lbs.

Exchange is quoted at 50d. drawers, and 50½ takers. A fair amount was done at 50½ gold. Large amounts in francs were passed.

Telegrams from Montevideo report Deuda Amortisable at 20 and the took as rising. It may interest our readers to know that two Argentine capitalist have swept 3 to 4 millions (nominal value) of Montevidean Stocks from the Bolsa in the Mount.

14,000 arr. wool arrived in the Once to-day. Prices in general look duller and the 'artists' hold back. Lambs' wool nevertheless is sold at firmer prices than last week. Operations very small. The Antwerp public sales, we hear, take place on the 1st of February. The wool men think that the prices of the Antwerp auction will be under those of the Havre sales, owing to the very heavy arrivals.

Mr E. Nolte has received the new edition of the Almanach de Gotha for 1882. Our reader know where to apply.

The Nacion published this evening Baron von Holleben's letter to Minister Irigoyen. A more straightforward and frank note could not be addressed to the Argentine Government. The Baron is a favorite, especially in Argentine circles, and we wish him a prosperous voyage to old Fatherland, where his presence and his opinions will be the best recommendation of the Argentine Republic.

We think it well to lay before the public the following report just received from Mr J. Frederick Norman on the above mentioned 10 leagues of camp Section G. Nos 1, 4 and 5, which we shall offer in auction on the 24. inst.

The report reads:—

Lots 4 & 5. On the afternoon of Dec. 29th I started for your camp. The land is very deep, the soil black and full of vegetable matter with a growth of pasture I have never seen anywhere else, a perfect mat of "alfilerillo" and "trebol", with the pasto fuerte pushing up through it. Camping that night by a pool of water. I started next morning and beginning from S. E. mojon rode over the camp; it is soft and heavy pasture as I have already described, it gets higher near the west. but the soil black, and good sound grasses. That afternoon I rode until I got to the corner of lot 2, and then to the top of the cañada on your camp Lot , where finding water I camped. The cañada is about 2 or 3 squares wide, the camp on the north is very good with lots of grass, towards the south it is more knobby but still good camp.

Both your camps would take fully 2000 head of cattle per league if not more.

THE STATE OF IRELAND

A Boyle telegram announces the release, on Monday, of Mr Jasper Tully, editor of the Roscommon Herald, an imprisoned suspect. Great rejoicings took place on the occasion in the towns of Boyle and Ballyfarnon.

Printed circulars of the 'No Rent' manifesto, signed 'Patrick Egan,' were posted in several conspicuous places in Clonakilty on Sunday, addressed to the people in Ireland, informing them that the English Government has declared war against the Irish people. They were to meet it with passive resistance, pay no rent, and hold the harvest. A short, sharp struggle and the vilest oppression that ever afflicted humanity will be wiped away. Their brethren in America will supply unlimited aid. The placards were extensively read before being torn down by the police.

On Sunday night the house of a farmer named Fagan, at Hilltown, County Westmeath, was visited by three men, who asked whether he was a Land Leaguer. He replied in the affirmative, and in answer to a question whether he had paid his rent he said he did as other tenants did. They made him give up his gun, and while in the act of shaking hands with one of the men another fired a revolver, wounding him in the arm. A man named Clinton has been arrested.

The Duke of Leinster has collected his rents by remitting 20 per cent.

The Irish Times denies that the family of Lord Drogheda are boycotted at Monasterevan. The report circulated to that effect is unfounded.

On Tuesday, a suspect, Denis M'Carthy, of Middleton, Cork, was released from custody.

A no rent manifesto, signed 'Patrick Forde, Irish World, N. York,' has been posted in Boyle, calling on the people to shun the Land Court and stand up fearlessly for freedom.

The landlords in North Mayo and Galway have memorialised against their rents being assessed now, much of the land being submerged. Many will appeal to the superior Land Court.

Lord Henry Lennox and other prominent members of Parliament are visiting the West Coast of Ireland, with a view of developing the fisheries there.

The Dublin Express says—We understand that there is on foot a movement, whose object is to convene in Dublin a great meeting of the landlords of all Ireland to express the universal indignation at the mode in which the Land Act is being administered, and to put forward strongly, and even sternly as against the Imperial Parliament, a demand for compensation.

The Central News Dublin correspondent is enabled to state that, of cases already heard and determined under the Land Act, arrears amounting to about 40 per cent. have been lodged. About the 15th of January next the commissioners will proceed to hear appeals, and will sit in the following towns:—In the Province of Leinster, Dublin; in the province of Ulster, Belfast and Derry; in that of Munster, Cork and Waterford; and in that of Connaught, Galway. The tenants of Lord O'Neill, numbering some 5,00, are expected shortly to apply to have a fair rent fixed.

The following arrests were made on Tuesday under the Coercion Act:—John Regan and John Sweeney, near Mallow, on suspicion of attacking houses and intimidating tenants; Patrick Nealson, farmer, Gurteenmore, near Balla; Edmund Maguire, of Gorendahoos, Kilfinan, County Limerick; Thomas M'Kenna and Thomas Daley, of County Westmeath; Edmund Nolan, president of the late Ballybrittas Land League; John Flannagan, member of the Killenaule branch; Thomas Dumphy, of the Rathdowney Land League; Muirhead Whittaker Clough, secretary of the Aghabre branch, and Mr Fallhee, vice-president of the Labasheeda Land League, Kildysart, who only returned from America a short time since.

A meeting of the Birmingham Reform League, held on Tuesday passed resolutions expressing indignation at the imprisonment without trial of 354 patriotic Irishmen, and pledging the League to use earnest efforts to raise funds for their families, and to secure their release. Another resolution was adopted, protesting against the proposed increased grant to Prince Leopold.

The Earl of Dunraven's offer of 33 per cent. reduction of rents has been accepted, and the tenants have paid all arrears conditionally on a valuation of the property being made.

A Limerick telegram conveys the text of a letter addressed by the Earl of Devon to his tenants, whereby his lordship, in consequence of the resolution of the tenants to demand 20 per cent. reduction of rents and half the poor rates and county cess, withdraws his recent offer to facilitate applications to the Land Court by accepting the surrender of current leases, and intimates his intention to enforce his legal rights.

A labourers' meeting intended to be held at Doon, near Limerick, was stopped by a party of constabulary.

Her Majesty has, through the Countess Cowper, contributed £200 to the funds of the association which has been formed for the relief of Irish ladies in distress owing to the non-payment of rent.

Several branches of the Ladies' Land League in Counties Carlow and Wicklow have resolved to boycott the exhibition of Irish manufactures if any member of the Royal or Viceregal families or any agent of the Government opens it or is officially connected with it.

Mr J. Kelly, Land League organiser at Warrenpoint; Mr Philip J. O'Reilly, merchant, of Cloughjordan, King's County; Thomas Tallaheo, of Ballyarnay; and John Harvey, of Kildurney, have been arrested under the Coercion Act.

The funeral of a woman named Clerry, of Millstreet, County Cork, was completely boycotted on Thursday, owing to deceased having voted against the Land League candidate at an election for Poor-law guardians and dealt with a boycotted man.

The suspects in Kilmainham Gaol complain bitterly of some fresh change in their rooms, which Mr Dillon finds very injurious to his health.

Mr Parnell is still confined to bed with a feverish cold, but it is not of a serious nature. He has addressed the following letter to Mr O'Donnell, M.P., in reference to the statement made by that gentleman in the Rotundo on Thursday evening.—

Kilmainham, Dec. 9.

My dear O'Donnell

I find I was mistaken in telling you yesterday, as you stated in your speech at the Rotundo, that it was Dr Carte who made the representation to Mr Forster, 'that the prison diet was killing J Dillon.' I believe this was contained in a report of Dr Kenny's whose function it was as Dillon's medical adviser to make the representation concerning his patient's health. The result, however, as far as Mr Forster is concerned, is exactly as you state—viz, that no representation on the subject seems to have the least effect in inducing him to liberate Dillon, whose health is seriously undermined. Kindly have error corrected.

Yours very truly

CHAS. S. PARNELL.

The usual weekly lecture in connection with the Home Rule Association was delivered on Monday, at the rooms of the association, Justice-chambers, Hatton-garden, Mr. John Denvir was the lecturer. his subject being 'A Model Island,' and in this he sketched out the form of government, the land system, and the best distribution of the population with regard to the various trades, professions, and business of life, and other matters required to make a self-contained and prosperous community. Before the conclusion of the proceedings, there was a vote expressive of gratitude to the Right Rev. Dr. Nulty for his letter to Mr. Cowen. The hasty conduct of the Government in removing some of the Kilmainham prisoners from their present cells to others likely to be dangerous to their health was severely condemned, and a vote of sympathy with the people of Vienna at the calamity that has befallen them was also passed.

Dr. Gillooly, Roman Catholic Bishop of Elphin, in his pastoral letter directs his people not to send their children to the meetings of the Children's Land League established in the diocese.

The spirt of resistance to the authority of the clergy in political matters, which the land agitation has more strikingly developed, is examplified in the following occurrence at Dromeskin, near Castlebellingham, on Sunday fortnight. The Rev. P. M. M'Cullagh, P.P., from the altar-steps advised Lord Clermont's tenants who resided in that parish to pay their rents and not be misled by a few rebels. A number of persons then left the chapel. On Sunday last the Rev. gentleman read out, also from the altar-steps, a list of those who had so offended, and called upon them to advance to the altar-rail and make an apology or leave the church. The congregation all left, with the exception of a few men and women. The Rev. gentleman read the gospel of the day and delivered a sermon in which he denounced the land agitation in strong terms.

An extraordinary letter from the Roman Catholic Bishop Nulty, of Meath, appears in the Freemans Journal. It is addressed to Mr Cowen, of Newcastle, and it is an elaborate panegyric on Mr Parnell and a bitter attack on Mr Gladstone and the Liberal party. Bishop Nulty says of the Land Commission:—"This is by no mean an ordinary Commission, authorized simply to interpret and administer an Act of Parliament. It seems rather an extraordinary commission vested in certain contingencies which will frequently arise under the Act with quasi-legislative power virtually to enact new laws as well as to administer them. Such a court (he says) owes it to a proper sense of its own dignity and self-respect to hold itself above even the suspicion of undue precipitation and haste, in the discharge of its quasi-legislative functions, to enable the court to discharge its duties with deliberation and dignity, and not to weary and disgust its suitors with intolerable, procrustination and delay. Mr. Parnell with the practical sagacity for which he is remarkable, devised the scheme of submitting at the onset his best cases to it for its arbitration." After a long dissertation on this theme, the bishop winds up thus:—"As we are now striving for our lives, the time has come when the Radical party must speak out, and openly take a side against us. If they do not compel Mr Gladstone to reverse his policy, and set Mr Parnell and the other suspects at liberty, on what reasonable grounds, may I ask, can they claim the loyalty, the allegiance, the political sympathy, and the support with which the Irish nation invariably favoured them? Any escape at all from Mr. Gladstone's Government would not only be a relief but a positive improvement of our condition. The great distinctive features that had long distinguished and characterised Liberal and Tory administration are now obliterated. They do not now differ even in degree. The whole Irish race in Ireland, England, and Scotland, and the world over is united as one man in heart, interests, and feeling in the great struggle in which we are now engaged. Although we are numerous enough to be counted by millions, yet we are thoroughly organised and disciplined. We are sensitively attentive and obedient to the instructions issued for our guidance by the leaders whom we know and have confidence in. We can throw our united energy and strength into one great combined movement; we can direct that movement to any point we please. Since our organization has become almost perfect we have had no opportunity of showing our strength. The next general election will prove what it really is. In the meantime, Irish electors of Stafford, of Liverpool, and other great English towns have the glory of having revealed to the world the tactics we mean to pursue, and they have entitled themselves to the eternal gratitude of their countrymen by showing how we can avenge the ingratitude of a party to whom we have been, unfortunately for ourselves, always only too loyal."

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London. "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

ROUGHING IT IN THE COLONIES.—There can be no doubt that a man has to put up with many little inconveniences when he settles in a new country; some of them arising from 'the necessity of things,' whilst others are the result of his own want of knowledge or foresight. However, if he can secure pure water and good bread he will manage to get along tolerably well. Thanks to the advance of chemical science, this last desideratum is not so difficult to obtain as in times past, for with a good supply of BORWICK'S BAKING POWDER, even Robinson Crusoe himself might have produced the whitest and most palatable of bread, to say nothing of cakes and pastry ad libitum, and would doubtless have ended by opening a pastry-cook's shop upon his desert island. NOTA BENE.—Don't forget to ask your storekeeper to put up a good supply of this valuable article with your groceries. In packets, 1d, and 2d, boxes, 6d. and 1s. each.
